

"THE NEW LANDSCAPE IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND IMPLICATIONS FOR THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY"

Conference organized by the Research Center - Intercollege

Monday, October 9, 2006

Unesco Amphitheatre, Europa Building - Intercollege, Nicosia

16:00 - 16:10 Registration

16:10 - 16:20 Andreas Theophanous

Research Center - Intercollege, Cyprus

Opening Address

I. THE LANDSCAPE IN THE MIDDLE EAST AFTER THE WAR IN LEBANON

Chair: Andreas Theophanous, Research Center - Intercollege

16:20 - 16:40 Shlomo Avineri

Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel

"Current Challenges for Conflict Resolution and Conflict Containment in the Middle East"

16:40 - 17:00 Habib Malik

Lebanese American University, Lebanon

"Exploring New Opportunities for Regional Peace Following the Summer 2006 War in Lebanon"

17:00 - 17:40 Discussion

17:40 - 18:10 Break

II. PERSPECTIVES FROM THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY

Chair: Michalis Attalides, Rector - Intercollege

H.E. Andrey A. Nesterenko

18:10 - 18:25

Ambassador, Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary,
Embassy of the Russian Federation, Cyprus

"Perspectives on Current Trends in International Relations: A View from Moscow"

H.E. Peter Millett

18:25 - 18:40

High Commisioner, British High Commision, Cyprus

"European Perspectives on the Crisis in Lebanon and the Broader Region"

18:40 - 19:20 Discussion

R.S.V.P. 22-841600, E-mail: rdc-i@intercollege.ac.cy